當代「人類世」的危機讓我們深刻意識到，西方科學及當代科技的發展，使人類對地球的支配力和科技對人類的支配力都已到達某種臨界點。值此人類世危機方興未艾之際，科學與科技的發展如何載舟而不覆舟，乃是攸關人類存亡的重大課題。

本屆「德勒茲／瓜達希研究在亞洲」會議以「科技與生命」為主題，旨在引領全球的學術界針對「科技與生命」進行研討，以期率先在國際間對此課題進行深入的反思及全方位的回應。

德勒茲及瓜達希的思想如何幫助我們應對人類世的挑戰？在科技可能成為主宰的「科技世」前夕，我們該如何讓科技成為我們的助力而非阻力？

The contemporary "Anthropocene" crisis makes us acutely aware that the development of Western science and modern technology has pushed both human dominance over the Earth and technological control over humanity to a critical juncture. At this pivotal moment of the Anthropocene crisis, how science and technology can steer the ship without capsizing it becomes a crucial issue for human survival.

With the theme "Technology and Life," this year's conference aims to lead the global academic community in discussing and reflecting on the intersection of technology and life. Our goal is to be at the forefront of international discourse, offering a comprehensive and in-depth exploration of this critical issue.

How can the thoughts of Deleuze and Guattari help us address the challenges of the Anthropocene? As we stand on the brink of a potential "Technocene" where technology might dominate, how can we ensure that technology serves as an ally rather than an obstacle?
